

I woke up at about 6:30am and started working at 6:56am. We hit the road at 9:56 this morning, and it is currently 10:43 am.

On our way out, I emptied the trash, and sewage on the trailer Toto's employees stay in. The same trailer that we just got done hauling to Nevada.

We arrived back at sand mountain sometime after 10:30pm this evening.
